I would like to be a member of the Metastatic Breast Cancer Support Group as indicated above. In order to create a safe, confidential place where all participants can feel supported, I promise:

- 1) To demonstrate respect for the feelings, opinions, time, resources and shared experiences of my fellow participants and the facilitator.
- 2) To attend the sessions on the dates listed above and to arrive on time except in the case of an extenuating circumstance (e.g. pre-planned vacation, family obligation, medical appointments, illness, etc.). If I cannot attend a particular meeting, I will try to inform the facilitator in advance. I understand that a session will be cancelled unless at least 2 members plan to attend a particular session. I agree to be informed by email the evening before a scheduled session if it is to be cancelled.
- 3) To respect the confidentiality of all current and former participants. I will not repeat names of group members or any information shared during a group session to persons outside of the group (including my own family and friends and the families and friends of other group members) using any form of verbal or written communication, such as in-person or phone conversations, email, social networking sites or other forms of media.
- 4) To inform the Group Facilitator of any updates to the contact information on my Intake Form.

I understand that I am free to leave the group at any time by notifying the facilitator and that I may be asked to leave the group for a breach of the above covenants.
